It all starts with Joy...

Depressing Spirit

Have any of you guys ever had a friend that ALWAYS has some kind of "dramatic" problem. Let's be honest for a second... some people are just addicted to drama and hardship. I'm gonna call this the "depressing spirit." I've been thinking about this life of worship and realized that we HAVE TO BE JOYFUL. So many times I hear Christians say things like "I'll pray for you, and if you ever have a problem call me." But is that all relationship really is?? Absolutely not!!! We were created for relationship with God, and not some depressing "don't disappoint me, ill pray for you relationship." Instead, we were made for a joyous, exciting, purposeful relationship grounded in the faithfulness of God.

Psalms 28: 6-7
(the Message)

Blessed be God- He heard me praying. He proved He's on my side; Iv'e thrown my lot in with him. Now I'm jumping for joy, and shouting and singing my thanks to him.
